

- That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
- How Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved your time at home.
- How effective Indiana's law has been (e.g., "I used to receive 12 calls per week, now I only receive one").
- Even with the caller I.D. it was difficult to tell who the calls were coming from. Now with the block in place there are very seldom any calls.
